

It has come to my attention that Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I would like to voice my concern and stress the fact that if I have a current relationship with any business, I will contact them when I need something. I don't wish to be contacted by any business, proactively....that is why I signed up for the Telephone Privacy List. Just because I have a relationship with a business, doesn't give them the right to continually bother me with phone calls during my family time, which is what they will do. By allowing these businesses to call me, you will be choosing business over my family. Thank you, Ryan Mull
